

ROME TO LISBON

Coasts & Countryside

6 Days

Rome
Saint Peters

Thought Mediterranean Europe was out of your reach? Think again. Take two weeks to voyage through Italy, France, Monaco, Spain, and Portugal, hitting up tons of major highlights (the French Riviera, Rome, Cinque Terre, Lisbon, and Madrid among them) for way less than you'd think — meaning more cash to spend on delicious tapas and dancing at nightclubs.

Travel Style:

18-to-30 somethings

Fast, fresh, and fun adventures that never slow down, made for young, budget-minded travelers.

Service Level: Basic

Simple and clean hotels and hostels; affordable public and private transport; lots of optional activities.

Trip Type: Group

Small group experience; Max 16, avg 14

Age requirement: 18-39

Rome
Statue Sculpture

Day 1 Rome

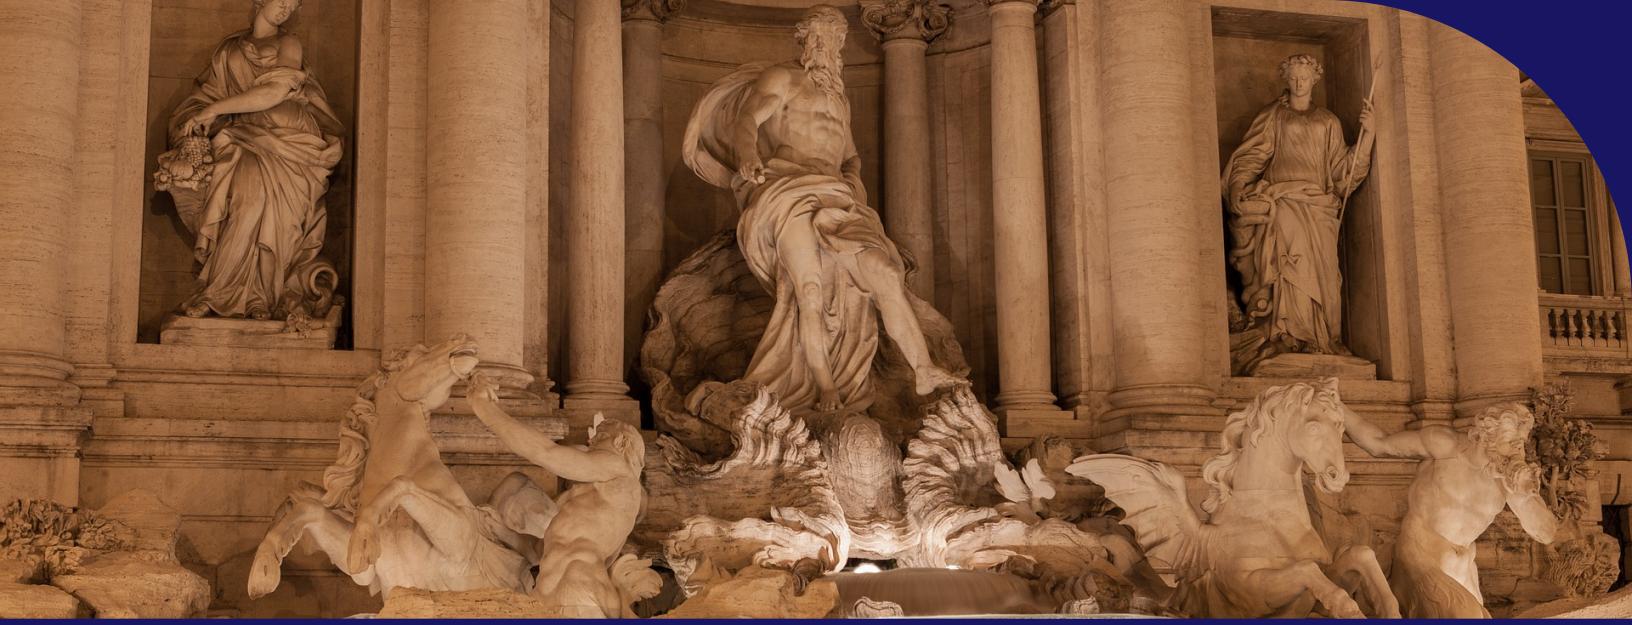

"On an evening in Roma..."

Venture out to a bar or pub with your CEO and fellow travelers for drinks and conversation. As you explore the winding cobblestone streets and sidewalks of The Eternal City, prepare for the endless excitement about to unfold on the rest of your journey.

Rome to Lisbon

Travel Ture Agent

Rome
Trevi Function

Day 2 Rome/Rapallo

Stop at Pisa to check out the Leaning Tower en route to the beautiful Italian Riviera.

Day 3 Rapallo

Walk the coastal path between Riomaggiore and Monterosso or opt to take the train. Visit charming, colourful towns along the way with an included national park pass and unlimited train ticket.

Day 4 Rapallo/Nice

Continue to the French Riviera and enjoy a free afternoon in Nice. Opt to take a cycling tour, go for a hike along the coast, or take a day trip to nearby beaches and villages.

Day 5 Monaco Day Trip

Take a day trip by train to nearby Monaco. Get your bearings with your CEO and set off on foot to explore the world's second-smallest country (only the Vatican is smaller).

Lisbone
Retouch Sunset

Elham Shiri 2023

